

Emergency Communications List

Family

1) Wife's Primary

a) Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Address: _____

b) Phone: _____ Cell/Text: _____ Email: _____

2) Wife's Secondary

a) Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Address: _____

b) Phone: _____ Cell/Text: _____ Email: _____

3) Husband's Primary

a) Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Address: _____

b) Phone: _____ Cell/Text: _____ Email: _____

4) Husband's Secondary

a) Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Address: _____

b) Phone: _____ Cell/Text: _____ Email: _____

5) Alternate

a) Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Address: _____

b) Phone: _____ Cell/Text: _____ Email: _____

Church / Life Group / Social Group

6) Life Group / Social Primary

a) Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Address: _____

b) Phone: _____ Cell/Text: _____ Email: _____

7) Life Group / Social Secondary

a) Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Address: _____

b) Phone: _____ Cell/Text: _____ Email: _____

8) Church / Organization Office

a) Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Address: _____

b) Phone: _____ Cell/Text: _____ Email: _____

9) Church / Organization Primary

a) Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Address: _____

b) Phone: _____ Cell/Text: _____ Email: _____

10) Church / Organization Secondary

a) Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Address: _____

b) Phone: _____ Cell/Text: _____ Email: _____

Communications Notes

- If phone / cell phone services are unavailable, try text messaging and email!
- Be brief and to the point! Leave brief and fact filled messages.
- Communicate your status: Safe or Need Help, Staying put at [location] or Evacuating to [location] via [route].
- Communicate who is with you, and who is not and where they are or should be.
- Ask them to make contact with the next person in a list if needed.
- If communications are unavailable: leave written messages with marker, chalk, or paint in large obvious locations.

Monitor Emergency Communications on TV, Radio, Weather Radio, Scanner or CB radio.